

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

And so the time has finally arrived when corporate bribes to government officials dictates the rule of the land. One World Corporation preventing competition.

The only thing we have to fear is one world corporation and the government that allows it to flourish in a "capitalistic" society.
